Thanh Trang has been selected to represent Vietnam at the Miss All Nations Pageant 2017 set to take place in China from January 4-20.

Thanh Trang, 25, is 1.74 meters tall and measures 88-62-99.

She competed in her first beauty contest when she entered Miss Universe Vietnam 2017, however, Trang could only finish in the Top 70 due to her lack of pageant experience.

Trang has dedicated a month to her preparations for the Miss All Nations Pageant 2017.

Trang will fly to China on January 4-5. The final night of the Miss All Nations Pageant 2017 is set for January 20 with the participation of more than 40 contestants from around the world.

This will be the tenth edition of the pageant. Vietnam has previously sent two representatives to the event, Ngoc Van, who finished 8th in 2015, and Lai Thanh Huong, who finished 15th in 2016.
